

Questions Nova Scotians May Want to Ask

Diversity and Inclusion in the Public Service

1. What steps will government be taking to improve diversity and inclusion across the civil service?
2. Why would implementation and evaluation plans be developed for the diversity and inclusion strategy but not be used and will this be corrected for the new strategy?
3. What steps is government taking to identify and collect data to better assess diversity and inclusion programs and initiatives?
4. What is government doing to address issues around completion and tracking on mandatory training in government?
5. What steps does government have planned to further reduce barriers to employment, retention and advancement for members of designated groups?

